Bill Sizer Memorial Basketball Awards - Today we celebrated the 30TH annual basketball program for Waterloo's thirty three senior players. We re-named this program to honor Bill Sizer, Exchangite and avid high school sports fan, after his death several years ago. Shirley, Bill's widow and Cindy Lange, Bill and Shirley's daughter led us in remembrance of Bill.

Cindy Lang and Shirley Sizer

Exchangite Dave Wyant ably served as Master of Ceremony. Dave introduced us to our speaker, Mac McCausland, who shared some of his life-experiences as an athlete and offered some helpful advice for the students.

The coaches from the various schools introduced the staff, graduating senior players and the MVP's from each school. The MVP's, selected by the various coaches and staff, are: Columbus - Tim Kelly, and Jessica Tate; East High - Trice Scott, and Kelsey Summers; West High - Amit Reddy and Charity Martin. The MVP's received a nice trophy from the Club.

The Overall MVP's, selected by the KWWL and Courier Sports Departments, were announced by MC Dave Wyant. East High's Trice Scott and West High's Charity Martin took home the MVP honors and huge trophies.
