Closed Business Meeting – President McGriff took the advantage of the Closed Business Meeting today to bring us up to date on the club goals for the year.

Exchange Club President Don McGriff

- Conduct a membership drive that brings in 15 new members. The membership currently stands at 103. With the planned level of attrition, the membership at the end of the year is targeted at 108.
- Implement a fund raiser utilizing the remaining Healing Field flags. The current level of flag inventory represents $6,000 in potential revenue.
- Achieve 90% membership retention.
- Involve a major portion of the membership in the Home Show.

We discussed the dates for a number of key initiatives.

- District Exchange Convention - The District Convention is being hosted by our club next year, here in Waterloo. The dates are June 4 -6. DeLon Goebeli is leading this effort. Contact DeLon if you would like to serve on one of the committees planning and organizing the event. DeLon can be contacted by phone at 239-4006.
- National Exchange Convention - The National Convention will be held next July 15-18 in Jacksonville, FL .
- Home Show - Next year the Home Show will run February 13-15.
- Sports Show - Next year the Sports Show will run March 13-15.

Bereavement - Craig Holdiman's mother-in-law, Evelyn Buenger passed away Monday. There will be a visitation Friday from 4:00-8:00 PM at the Kaiser Corson Funeral Home in Waverly. Funeral services will be Saturday at 10:30 AM at St. John's Lutheran Church in Fredericka, IA. Let's keep Craig, Sharon and their family in our thoughts and prayers as they work their way through this time of great sadness and loss.
