Sculptures Throughout Waterloo – Vice-president Sharon Droste introduced our guest speaker, Marie Camille. Marie Camille is a sculptress working primarily with items created from stainless steel and wood products. Painting is also among her artistic talents. On her business card is an illustration of her own work, a creation entitled "Star Dancing".

Displayed on the stage, behind the speaker's table, were other examples of her work. During her presentation she also shared a creation made from stainless steel in the shape of a triangle tied with many ribbons.

Marie did comment on our own creation of the Healing Field, saying it too was a sculpture in its own way.

Marie Camille is a family oriented person with a loving husband and four children. She is especially concerned for her son who is now serving in Iraq. She commented that her husband is a very strong person and jokingly described him as being built like a forklift.

At the end of her presentation, President McGriff presented Marie with a plaque representing the symbol for the Prevention of Child Abuse.

Editor's note: Last week as you all were gathering at the Elk's Club, your Editor was dining at Aunt B's Kitchen—a little cafe in Selmer, TN. Neat little place. The lunch special was fried chicken and your 'choice' of 5 side vegetables. We are not sure why they called it a 'choice' since there were only five dishes to choose from. We were reticent to ask, as the waitress was wearing a tee shirt advertising a motorcycle repair shop and it's probably not the best manners to appear tentative about the menu in west TN... The food and service were great though. A special thanks to Exchangite and friend Lloyd Hummel for taking notes from the meeting for me.

Guests - Exchangite Trent Hunter invited Richard Shepherd back again as his guest. Trent and Richard are both employed at the Sullivan Brothers Convention Center. Trent announced that Richard will be joining the group as a member. Welcome Richard. We look forward to getting to know you as an Exchangite and friend.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

President McGriff offered this metaphorical illustration on the dependence on the contextually variable factor philosophy of relativity as the thought for the week: "If you sit with a nice girl for 2 hours, you think it's only a minute. If you sit on a hot stove for a minute, you think it's 2 hours. That's relativity."
